

Honoring Momma

Proverbs 31:28; Exodus 20:12

Thesis

I am here today to honor my Mother, my Grandmothers, and my Wife.

Intro

Shirley Caesar song, “I Remember My Momma In A Special Way.” So today I want to give honor to my momma, my grandmothers and my Wife. I want to call their names out loud - and so should you call your momma and grand’s names out loud.

1. I want to thank her for who she was - loving, kind, considerate, funny, understanding and sacrificial.
2. I now recognize the great gift I had, that I didn't appreciate the way I should have when I had it.
3. They made me better. More thoughtful, less selfish, more respectful of women. They are still affecting me today.
4. Finally, I have to thank My Wife - because she too has given me a lot, and has made me better.
5.  So I raise up and call My Momma, My Grandmothers and My Wife - Blessed! *And I commit to do even Better!
